THE 2018 CHRISTOS and GEORGIA TRAKATELLIS FELLOWSHIP
Renewal Procedures for 2018

General Information

The Chancellor's Office of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America oversees the Trakatellis Fellowship Fund and is responsible for awarding fellowships on an annual basis. In order to be eligible to renew this fellowship, candidates must be continuing their academic work in the same program for which they were awarded the fellowship in the previous year.

Candidates who would like to apply for a fellowship renewal must complete the attached application and submit it together with all the documentation requested below. Candidates will be selected based on "merit" and "need", and applying does not guarantee an award. The amount of the fellowship is $3,000 per semester for up to two semesters a year, totaling $6,000. One or more full, or partial, fellowships shall be awarded annually.

Fellowship Renewal Procedures

Along with a completed renewal application, all of the following items must also be submitted before a fellowship renewal will be considered:

- A letter, addressed to the Chancellor of the Archdiocese, which should include information on the academic program being pursued, with details on the progress the applicant is making in his/her program and an anticipated date of completion. The letter should also include details of estimated educational expenses (e.g., tuition, books, travel, etc.) for the upcoming academic year, and an accounting of how these expenses will be funded (scholarships, grants, loans, etc.).
- A letter from an Academic Advisor showing satisfactory progress in the program.
- A letter from the institution the applicant is attending confirming they are continuing their studies in the 2018-2019 academic year.

Your completed application and supporting documentation should be sent to the following address:

Trakatellis Fellowship Fund Committee
Office of the Chancellor
Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America
8 East 79th Street
New York, NY 10075

Completed applications must be postmarked no later than May 4, 2018 to be considered for awards for the 2018-2019 academic year. Applying for this fellowship does not automatically guarantee an award. Each application will be considered individually in conjunction with the supporting documentation provided by each candidate.
