Independent Auditor's Report

To His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America and the Members of the Archdiocesan Council
The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America
New York, New York

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America (the Archdiocese), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Archdiocese as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Archdiocese and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Archdiocese's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and, therefore, is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Archdiocese's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Archdiocese's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization and Nature of Activities

The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America (the Archdiocese) is the administrative body of the Greek Orthodox Church in America (the Church). The Archdiocese relies primarily on funding from its parishes located throughout the United States.

The Archdiocese is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and similar state and local provisions. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. In addition, the Archdiocese has been determined not to be a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the IRC.

The Archdiocese is related to a number of other entities by virtue of its charter with the Ecumenical Patriarchate (Patriarchate), and by certain common board membership. The accompanying financial statements do not include the financial position, changes in net assets, and cash flows of the following affiliated organizations:

- Holy Metropolises of Atlanta; Boston; Chicago; Denver; Detroit; New Jersey; Pittsburgh; and San Francisco and the Direct Archdiocesan District (combined, these are referred to as the Metropolis).
- Hellenic College, Inc. (Hellenic College)
- Greek Orthodox Archdiocesan Cathedral of the Holy Trinity
- Saint Basil Academy

Program Services

The total commitment received from parishes and the grants and contributions from donors enable the Archdiocese to operate various programs, primarily in the following areas:

Education - The Archdiocese promotes and supports programs that enhance religious and Greek education, youth and young adult ministries, and the summer camp experience at its Ionian Village in Greece. Religious education includes the production of content in an array of themes related to the Church and its ministry, as well as the Sunday School program. Greek education supports the production of resources for Greek schools and families around the country. The youth and young adult ministries are focused on helping the younger members of the Church to feel spiritually connected to the Church through various programs, such as Effective Christian Ministry curricula training, development of camp curricula, educational online video series, and youth retreats at parishes throughout the Archdiocese. The Ionian Village summer camp brings together American high school students abroad for an exciting religious, cultural, and educational experience with peers. Youth retreat programs are also run by the Ionian Village during other times of the year. Direct grants to Hellenic College are also included in this program and are further discussed in Note 13.

Metropolis Ministries - A portion of the total commitment supports each Metropolis by funding certain Metropolis clergy and administrative staff salaries and benefits, insurance, and other expenses of the Metropolis. In addition, under a revenue-sharing formula, the Archdiocese remits to each Metropolis a portion of the total commitment revenue after deducting the respective Metropolis expenses funded by the Archdiocese. During 2021 and 2020, the Archdiocese included the government grants received (see Contributions and Grants below) in the revenue-sharing formula.

The commitment sharing payable of $909,831 at December 31, 2021 included $473,331 of the 2021 government grant of $1,893,324. This amount was presented as a deduction from government grant revenue in the accompanying statement of activities for the year ended December 31, 2021.

For the year ended December 31, 2020, the government grant of $2,364,580 was deemed to be total commitment collections by the Metropolises in the calculation of the support to each Metropolis. The total commitment sharing payable of $853,203 at December 31, 2020 included $591,145 attributable to the 2020 government grant, which was presented as a deduction from government grant revenue in the accompanying statement of activities for the year ended December 31, 2020.

Orthodoxy in the World - In conjunction with the Ecumenical Patriarchate, the Archdiocese, through its relevant departments and personnel, maintains and coordinates relationships with other Orthodox jurisdictions in America, Christian denominations and inter-Christian organizations, other faiths and interfaith groups, and global affairs, especially the United Nations. Expenses include department personnel costs and metropolitan travel to synods at the Ecumenical Patriarchate and special events. Direct grants to the Ecumenical Patriarchate are also included in this program and are further discussed in Note 13.

Subsequent to December 31, 2021, the Archdiocese granted $222,660 of the Patriarchal Visit unexpended funds in support of the charitable activities of the Patriarchate.

Communications - The Archdiocese maintains resources that promote communication of current events within the Archdiocese. The communications office issues press releases and special announcements, produces and broadcasts special events, and monitors and oversees all social media activities. The Internet Ministries department ensures that current, accurate, and relevant materials are circulated online. The Internet Ministries department also maintains the websites of the Archdiocese, the Ecumenical Patriarchate, and a number of organizations or groups related to the Church. Services, such as website maintenance, bulletin builder, and live streaming may be provided for a fee to parishes within and outside the jurisdiction of the Archdiocese.

Community - The Archdiocese's community activities comprise a wide-range of functions and departments, including registry, public relations, archives, philanthropy, and family care. Registry maintains sacramental records (baptism, marriage, divorce, death, etc.) of individuals within the Archdiocese. The public relations department promotes the presence of the Archdiocese in the public sphere, especially in governmental and global relations, as well as coordinates certain affairs of the Ecumenical Patriarchate. The archives department catalogs the historical record of the Archdiocese and major events of the Church. The philanthropy division provides financial and medical assistance to retired clergy, widowed presbyters, and those in severe need. It also maintains scholarship funds offered by donors.

St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and National Shrine (St. Nicholas) - In 2013, the Archdiocese commenced a capital campaign on behalf of and for the specific purpose of rebuilding St. Nicholas. Contributions received from this campaign are treated as custodial funds and disbursed for construction and related rebuilding activities. Over the years, the Archdiocese incurred certain costs related to St. Nicholas that were not charged directly to the St. Nicholas rebuilding fund, consisting primarily of fund-raising and personnel costs associated with St. Nicholas.

Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America

Notes to Financial Statements

In October 2018, the Friends of St. Nicholas, Inc. was established for the primary purpose of raising funds for the construction of St. Nicholas and oversight of all construction and maintenance activities. Commencing in April 2019, the construction costs and expenses incurred by St. Nicholas were borne by Friends of St. Nicholas, Inc.

Clergy-Laity Congress - The Clergy-Laity Congress, the legislative body of the Archdiocese, is convened biennially and presided over by the Archbishop. It is concerned with all matters, other than doctrinal or canonical, affecting the life, growth, and unity of the Church, the institutions, finances, administration, and educational and philanthropic concerns. The annual total commitment revenue goal for the Archdiocese is determined during the Clergy-Laity Congress. The delegates to the Clergy-Laity Congress are pastors and elected lay representatives.

The 2020 Clergy-Laity Congress, which was originally planned to be hosted by the Metropolis of Pittsburgh in Cleveland, Ohio, was held virtually due to the pandemic-related restrictions. As a result, certain contributions previously received were refunded to donors, including amounts received in 2019, which totaled approximately $125,000.

The revenue and expenses of the 2020 virtual Clergy-Laity Congress were as follows:

Revenue
Registration fees	$	89,925
Expenses , comprised of expenses directly incurred by the Archdiocese
Professional fees and other outside services (transcription)		24,439
Technology and communication costs		51,079

Other expenses		5,598
Total Expenses		88,149
Excess of Revenue and Other Support Over Expenses (Net Event Revenue)	$	1,776

Disaster Relief - The Archdiocese participates in relief efforts in the event of major fire, global conflicts, and natural disasters, primarily through solicitation of contributions from parishioners and other donors and distribution of aid to those in need of assistance in the affected areas. During 2021, the Archdiocese launched a relief program to provide support to families and organizations affected by multiple wildfires in Greece during the summer of 2021. Amounts raised during the year totaled $1,134,332. Greek fire relief assistance expense totaled $240,000 in 2021.

COVID-19 Relief - During 2020, the Archdiocese launched a COVID-19 relief program to provide support to various families and individuals who needed financial assistance because of the loss of income and other needs arising from the pandemic. Financial assistance provided totaled $633,283, which was funded through restricted contributions and grants. In addition, the Archdiocese established a Parish Initiative relief program to provide grants totaling $450,000 to parishes through the Metropolises. Of this amount, payments totaling $200,000 and $237,500 were made in 2021 and 2020, respectively. The balance of $12,500 and $212,500 at December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively, are presented as grants payable on the statements of financial position. This program was also funded through a restricted grant in 2020.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) using the accrual basis of accounting.

Classifications of Net Assets

The classification of a not-for-profit organization's net assets and its support, revenue, and expenses is based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. It requires that the amounts for each of the two classes of net assets—with donor restrictions and without donor restrictions—be displayed in a statement of financial position and that the amount of change in each of those classes of net assets be displayed in a statement of activities.

These classes are defined as follows:

Without Donor Restrictions - This class consists of net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations and that may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the Archdiocese. Included within net assets without donor restrictions is a board-designated fund, the Cathedral Fund, that was designated by Archbishop Iakovos, to be used, upon approval, for the benefit of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocesan Cathedral of the Holy Trinity and Cathedral-related projects. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Cathedral Fund had balances of $434,550 and $435,388, respectively, which are included in investments in the accompanying statements of financial position.

With Donor Restrictions - This class consists of net assets resulting from contributions and other inflows of assets whose use by the Archdiocese is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that either expire by the passage of time or can be fulfilled and removed by the actions of the Archdiocese pursuant to those stipulations. When such stipulations end or are fulfilled, such net assets are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported as net assets released from restrictions in the statements of activities.

Net assets with donor restrictions also include net assets resulting from contributions whereby the principal has been stipulated by the donor to be held and invested in perpetuity and the income used in accordance with the donor's stipulations, if any.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Archdiocese considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less, to be cash equivalents, except for those cash equivalents that are included in the Archdiocese's investment portfolio, which are held for long-term purposes.

Investments, at Fair Value

Investments in money market funds, mutual funds, and equity securities are reported at fair value based on published unit values or quoted market prices in active markets as of the reporting date. Investments in debt securities are measured using quoted market prices where available. If quoted market prices for debt securities are not available, the fair value is determined using an income approach valuation technique that considers, among other things, rates currently observed in publicly traded markets for debt with similar terms to companies with comparable credit risk, the issuer's credit spread, and illiquidity by sector and maturity. All investments are managed by outside investment advisors subject to the review, approval, and control by the Archdiocese. Such valuations involve assumptions and methods that are reviewed by the Archdiocese.

Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America

Purchases and sales of securities are reflected on a trade-date basis. Gains and losses on sales of securities are determined based on average cost and are recorded in the statements of activities in the period in which the securities are sold. Dividends and interest are recognized as earned. Contributed investments are valued at their fair market value on the date received.

Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the accompanying financial statements.

Fair Value Measurements

Professional standards establish a framework for measuring fair value and expand the disclosures about fair value measurements. U.S. GAAP defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date in a principal or most advantageous market. Fair value is a market-based measurement that is determined based on inputs, which refer broadly to assumptions that market participants use in pricing assets or liabilities. These inputs can be readily observable, market corroborated, or unobservable. U.S. GAAP established a fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value in three broad levels. The standard requires that assets and liabilities be classified in their entirety based on the level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Assessing the significance of a particular input may require judgment considering factors specific to the asset or liability and may affect the valuation of the asset or liability and their placement within the fair value hierarchy. The Archdiocese classifies fair value balances based on the fair value hierarchy defined by U.S. GAAP, as follows:

Level 1 - This level consists of quoted prices that are available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the measurement date.

Level 2 - This level consists of pricing inputs other than quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the measurement date. The nature of these securities includes investments for which quoted prices are available but traded less frequently and investments that are fair valued using other securities, the parameters of which can be directly observed. Bonds securities are priced by the Archdiocese's custodian using nationally recognized pricing services. Bond securities generally do not trade on a daily basis. For these securities, the pricing services prepare estimates of fair value measurements using their proprietary pricing applications, which include available relevant market information, benchmark curves, benchmarking of similar securities, sector groupings, and matrix pricing. These investments are classified as Level 2.

Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America

Notes to Financial Statements

Level 3 - This level consists of securities that have little to no pricing observability as of the measurement date. These securities are measured using management's best estimate of fair value, where the inputs into the determination of fair value are not observable and require significant management judgment or estimation. Also included in Level 3 are investments measured using a net asset value (NAV) per share, or its equivalent, that can never be redeemed at NAV at the statement of financial position date or in the near term or for which redemption at NAV is uncertain due to lockup periods or other investment restrictions.

A financial instrument's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. However, the determination of what constitutes "observable" requires significant judgment by the Archdiocese. The Archdiocese considers observable data to be that market data that is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary, and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market. The categorization of a financial instrument within the hierarchy is based upon the pricing transparency of the instrument and does not necessarily correspond to the Archdiocese's perceived risk of that instrument.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Archdiocese's investments consist of a variety of investment securities and investment funds. Investments in general are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility risk. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investments, it is reasonably possible that changes in the value of the Archdiocese's investments will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the accompanying financial statements.

Inventory

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost or market. Such inventory consists primarily of religious books, publications, and other program-related literature and materials. No provision for slow-moving inventory was required for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020. Inventory write-offs during 2021 totaled $211,551; there were no write-offs during 2020. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the reserve for slow-moving inventory amounted to $113,449 and $325,000, respectively, which is presented as a deduction from inventories in the accompanying statements of financial position.

Receivables

Due to the uncertainty surrounding collection, management provides an allowance for doubtful accounts based on the consideration of the type of receivable, responsible party, the known financial condition of the respective party, historical collection patterns, and comparative aging. The allowance is maintained at a level management considers adequate to provide for subsequent adjustments and potential uncollectible accounts. The estimates are reviewed periodically and, if the financial condition of a party changes significantly, management will evaluate the recoverability of any receivables from that organization and write off any amounts that are no longer considered to be recoverable. Any payments subsequently collected on such receivables are recorded as income in the period received. The allowance for doubtful accounts amounted to $38,000 at December 31, 2021 and 2020.

Notes to Financial Statements

Fixed Assets, Net

Land, buildings, building improvements, and equipment are recorded at cost or, if donated, at fair market value, at the date of the gift, less accumulated depreciation. The Archdiocese maintains a capitalization threshold of $3,500 for each land, buildings, and equipment item with a useful life of more than one year. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis.

The estimated useful lives of the assets are as follows:

	Years
Building and improvements	40
Furniture, fixtures, and equipment	3 to 10
Website development cost	5
Fine arts	3

Impairment of Fixed Assets

The Archdiocese reviews fixed assets for impairment whenever events or changes in business circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be fully recoverable. An impairment loss would be recognized when the future cash flows from the use of the asset are less than the carrying amount of that asset. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, there were no such losses.

Due to/from Other Related Entities

Amounts due to/from other related entities represent amounts owed to and/or expenses paid on behalf of Archdiocesan affiliates.

Beneficial Interest in Split-Interest Trusts Held by Others

The Archdiocese is the beneficiary of perpetual trusts whereby the donors contributed assets to third-party trustees. The trustees distribute investment income annually to the Archdiocese and the other named beneficiaries in the percentages specified in the trust documents. These distributions are reported as an increase in net assets in the statements of activities based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The Archdiocese values the trusts at their fair values, which are represented by the percentage ownership of the assets in the trusts. Changes in the fair value of the trusts' assets are reported in the statements of activities within net assets with donor restrictions.

Funds Held for Others

The Archdiocese holds funds, consisting of cash and investments, on behalf of other parties. As these funds can be used or directed by the Archdiocese only in accordance with the other parties' direction, a liability for funds held for others is recorded. The assets and the related liabilities are stated at fair value in the accompanying statements of financial position. Additions, disbursements, investment income, and any unrealized gain or loss on the investments are recognized as increases or decreases in assets and liability and are not reported in the accompanying statements of activities.

Notes to Financial Statements

Total Commitment

Total commitment represents the annual financial assessment to every parish in the Archdiocese to help support the mission of the Church. The unpaid total commitment at the end of the year is recorded as a receivable, net of an allowance for doubtful accounts, if required.

The total commitment is determined at the biennial Clergy-Laity Congress, which amounted to approximately $23,100,000 and $22,660,000 for 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Contributions and Grants

The Archdiocese records contributions of cash and other assets when an unconditional promise to give such assets is received from a donor. Contributions are recorded at the fair value of the assets received and are reported as an increase in net assets without donor restrictions unless the use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions.

Contributions not expected to be received within one year are recognized as support with donor restrictions and are discounted using a risk-adjusted discount rate assigned in the year the pledge originates.

The Archdiocese reports gifts of property and equipment as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire assets are reported as with donor restrictions. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long such assets must be maintained, the Archdiocese reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

Unconditional bequests (donations received under terms of a will) are reported as revenues when notification of the bequest is received, the amount is reasonably determinable, and the probate court declares the will valid.

Donated goods and services used by the Archdiocese are recorded as in-kind contributions at their estimated fair value at the date of receipt. During 2021, the Archdiocese received on a pro-bono basis legal services with an estimated value of $12,907. During 2020, the Archdiocese received on a pro-bono basis consulting services and legal services with estimated values totaling $30,346. These amounts are presented in the accompanying statements of activities as in-kind contribution revenue without donor restrictions and in-kind program expenses (see in-kind professional services in Note 3).

Contributions that are restricted by donors in perpetuity are recorded as permanently restricted within net assets with donor restrictions. The income is used for operating purposes when expenditures satisfy the donors' restrictions, and such amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Archdiocese. Income amounts that exceed related expenditures during a fiscal period remain as net assets with donor restrictions.

Investment return on contributions with donor restrictions are recorded in the net assets without donor restrictions class unless the investment return is explicitly restricted by the donor to be used for the same purpose as the contribution.

Notes to Financial Statements

On April 16, 2020, the Archdiocese obtained a loan with a principal amount of $2,487,323 from the Small Business Administration (SBA) pursuant to the provisions of the Paycheck Protection Program (the PPP) under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (the CARES Act) (the First Draw PPP Loan). The proceeds of the loan included $122,743 for two related entities. The loan had interest at 1% a year and was payable in 24 monthly installments, inclusive of interest, commencing November 16, 2020. The Archdiocese utilized all of the PPP loan proceeds on qualifying payroll costs and maintained the required level of full-time-equivalent employees, the primary requirements for loan forgiveness under the PPP. The First Draw PPP Loan was forgiven by the SBA on June 9, 2021.

On January 29, 2021, the Archdiocese obtained another loan in the principal amount of $1,998,000 from the SBA pursuant to the provisions of the Economic Aid to Hard-Hit Small Businesses, Nonprofits, and Venues Act (the Economic Aid Act) that was enacted into law on December 27, 2020 (the Second Draw PPP Loan). The loan proceeds included $104,676 for two related entities. The Economic Aid Act adopted the provisions of the PPP under the CARES Act, primarily with respect to interest rate and loan forgiveness requirements. The Archdiocese utilized all of the PPP loan proceeds on qualifying payroll costs and maintained the required level of full-time-equivalent employees, in accordance with the requirements for loan forgiveness under the PPP. The Second Draw PPP Loan was forgiven by the SBA on December 20, 2021.

The Archdiocese accounted for the First Draw PPP Loan and the Second Draw PPP Loan as conditional grants and met the conditions for revenue recognition in the year each of the conditional grants was received. Accordingly, both the Second Draw Loan and First Draw Loan are presented as government grants on the statements of activities for each of the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively, in the amounts of $1,419,993 and $1,773,435, net of amounts for the related entities and the portions included in the total commitment sharing due to the Metropolises.

The Archdiocese continues to receive contributions from the capital campaign launched in priors on behalf of and for the rebuilding of St. Nicholas. These contributions are accounted for as agency transactions and are remitted to Friends of St. Nicholas, Inc. Any unremitted funds are reported in the statements of financial position as cash held for St. Nicholas with a corresponding liability (see Note 7).

Revenue Recognition

The Archdiocese recognizes revenue from contracts with customers when control of the promised goods and services is transferred to outside parties in an amount that reflects the consideration that the Archdiocese expects to be entitled to in exchange for goods and those services. As required by U.S. GAAP, the Archdiocese has identified its program revenues, which consist of registration fees, exhibit fees, sales of religious books, Greek education books, publications and program-related materials, to provide an understanding of the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers.

Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America

Notes to Financial Statements

The Archdiocese's revenue from contracts with customers is comprised of the following:

December 31,	2021	2020
Program revenue:
Registration fees for Ionian Village summer camp and related programs	$ 171,218	$ 66,154
Sale of religious books, Greek education books, publications, and program-related materials	579,165	552,035
Services	61,296	62,418
	$ 811,679	$ 680,607
Clergy-Laity Congress program revenue:
Registration fees	$ -	$ 89,925
	$ -	$ 89,925

Registration and exhibit fees are recognized as revenue in the period that the events and related programs are held and the performance obligations are met. Except during 2021 and 2020, due to the pandemic, the Ionian Village summer camp and related programs are held annually. IV Next, which is a smaller program, resumed in 2021. The Clergy-Laity Congress is held every two years.

Revenue from the sales of religious books, Greek education books, publications, and program-related materials is recognized at the point of sale. Returns and discounts are minimal and not material; accordingly, these are recognized as reduction from sales at the time the returns or discounts are allowed.

Revenue from services, which consists mainly of hosting and related services by the Archdiocese's Internet Ministries, is recognized during the periods the services are performed.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

Costs related to the various programs and activities of the Archdiocese have been summarized on a functional basis in the accompanying statements of activities and the schedule of functional expenses in Note 3. These costs can generally be directly identified with the program service to which they relate and are charged accordingly. Indirect expenses have been allocated amongst the programs and supporting services benefited on the basis of the number of employees per department performing more than one function and/or supporting services.

Income Taxes

The Archdiocese follows U.S. GAAP, which requires accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. U.S. GAAP provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can only be recognized in the financial statements if the position is more likely than not to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged.

Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America

Notes to Financial Statements

The Archdiocese is incorporated in the state of New York and is exempt from federal income tax under IRC section 501(c)(3), though it is subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purpose, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the IRC. The Archdiocese has no significant unrelated income associated with its exempt purpose. The Archdiocese has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, to identify and report unrelated income, to determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which nexus was established, and to identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions. The Archdiocese has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

New Accounting Pronouncements Issued but Not Yet Adopted

Leases (Topic 842)

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), to increase transparency and comparability among foundations by recognizing lease assets and lease liabilities on the statements of financial position and disclosing key information about leasing arrangements for lessees and lessors. The new standard applies a right-of-use (ROU) model that requires, for all leases with a lease term of more than 12 months, an asset representing its ROU, the underlying asset for the lease term, and a liability to make lease payments to be recorded. The FASB issued ASU 2020-05, which deferred the effective date for the Archdiocese until its fiscal year beginning after December 15, 2021. Management believes that this ASU will not have a material impact on its financial statements.

Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958)

The FASB issued ASU 2020-07 (the Update) to clarify the presentation and disclosure of contributed nonfinancial assets, including land, buildings, and other items.

The enhanced presentation and disclosure requirements include the contributed nonfinancial assets as separately stated as an individual line item in the statements of activities, distinct from contributions of cash or other financial assets. The contributed nonfinancial assets are also disaggregated in a footnote by category that shows the type of contributed nonfinancial assets in the statements of activities. For each type of contributed nonfinancial assets recognized, a not-for-profit will disclose the not-for-profit's policy (if any) on liquidating rather than using contributed nonfinancial assets; qualitative considerations on whether the contributed nonfinancial assets were liquidated or used during the reporting period, and, if used, a description of how the asset was employed should be included; any donor-imposed restrictions related to the contributed nonfinancial assets; and the valuation methods and inputs utilized to determine a fair value. In accordance with Topic 820, Fair Value Measurement, it should be measured at initial recognition. The principal or most advantageous market is utilized to calculate fair value if it is a market in which the not-for-profit is restricted by the donor from selling or utilizing the contributed nonfinancial assets.

The Update does not change existing recognition and measurement requirements for contributed nonfinancial assets and is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after June 15, 2021. Management believes that this ASU will not have a material impact on its financial statements.

Notes to Financial Statements

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Archdiocese to concentrations of credit and market risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents and investments on deposit with financial institutions, which, from time to time, may exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limit. These financial institutions have strong credit ratings and management does not believe that a significant risk of loss due to the failure of a financial institution used by the Archdiocese is likely.

Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Archdiocese is substantially supported by its parishes throughout the United States. It also derives revenues from ministries; registries; and sales of books, materials, and other publications. In addition, the Archdiocese receives donor contributions with or without donor restrictions. Because a donor's restriction requires resources to be used in a particular manner or in a future period, the Archdiocese must maintain sufficient resources to meet those responsibilities to its donors.

The Archdiocese continues to put in place policies and procedures to ensure that the cost control measures implemented in recent years are maintained. As a result, the Archdiocese's liquidity continues to improve, enabling it to undertake financial commitments in addition to meeting its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations as they became due. The Archdiocese's financial goals through its budgetary processes include establishing a fund that may be drawn upon in the event of financial need or an immediate liquidity need. Additional liquidity is also available through its unused line of credit (see Note 8).

The continuing improvement in operating cash flows, which included proceeds received under the government loan programs (see Note 8) during 2021 and 2022, contributed substantially to the increase in financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures in the following year.

Mortgage loan payable, net		4,803,249		4,958,399

Economic Injury Disaster Loan

On November 5, 2020, the Archdiocese obtained a loan with a principal amount of $150,000 from the SBA under its COVID-19 Economic Injury Disaster Loan facility (the EID Loan). The EID Loan is payable monthly in the amount of $641, covering principal and interest at 2.75% a year, over a period of 30 years previously commencing 24 months from the date of the promissory note on the loan. No interest has been accrued through December 31, 2021 as the amount is not material.

The annual debt service for the next five years and thereafter on the $150,000 EID Loan follows:

Year ending December 31,		Principal		Interest		Total
2022	$	-	$	-	$	-
2023		2,342		2,786		5,128

Thereafter		136,521		66,035		202,556
	$	150,000	$	80,760	$	230,760

As further discussed in Note 15, the Archdiocese received $350,000 from the SBA in March 2022, increasing the loan amount to $500,000 and monthly payment from $641 to $2,224. Interest on the increased loan amount remains at 2.75% a year.

In addition, the first payment on the EID Loan was extended by the SBA to 30 months from the date of the promissory note.

The EID Loan is collateralized by substantially all of the Archdiocese's properties now owned or to be owned in the future.

Mortgage Loan Payable

On June 28, 2018, the Archdiocese obtained a mortgage loan from a local bank (the Lender) in the amount of $5.5 million (the Mortgage Loan). The Mortgage Loan bears interest at 4.25% a year and is payable in monthly installments of $34,243 commencing August 1, 2018 through June 1, 2023. The Mortgage Loan is based on a 20-year amortization period and a lump-sum payment of the loan balance on July 1, 2023 (the Maturity Date), together with any accrued interest. The Maturity Date may be extended to July 1, 2028 at the option of the Archdiocese (the Extension Option). If the Archdiocese exercises the Extension Option, the Archdiocese will make the 60th monthly payment of $34,243 on July 1, 2023. Thereafter, the remaining balance of the Mortgage Loan shall be payable in monthly installments, commencing August 1, 2023, to be determined based on a 15-year amortization period at an interest rate calculated based on the five-year Federal Home Loan Bank of New York (FHLBNY), which in no event shall be lower than 4.25% a year. The balance of the Mortgage Loan on July 1, 2028, together with any accrued interest, shall be due in one lump sum on that date.

Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America

Costs incurred in connection with the acquisition of the Mortgage Loan totaled $212,076 and are being amortized over the term of the Mortgage Loan using the interest method.

The Mortgage Loan and the line of credit described below are collateralized primarily by the properties of the Archdiocese located on 79th Street, New York, New York, including improvements thereon and other chattels as defined in the mortgage and security agreement dated June 28, 2018.

The carrying balances of the Mortgage Loan and related unamortized financing costs are as follows:

Line of Credit

On June 28, 2018, the Lender of the Mortgage Loan also extended the Archdiocese a variable rate revolving line of credit (LOC) in the amount $3.0 million. The LOC was renewed in 2019 in the amount of $5.0 million with a maturity date of January 1, 2021, and then renewed annually thereafter.

The maturity date of the LOC outstanding at December 31, 2021, which was due on January 1, 2022, was extended and was further renewed effective February 1, 2022, to mature on January 1, 2023 (the 2022 Renewal LOC). Loans drawn on the 2022 Renewal LOC are subject to a variable interest rate based on changes in an independent index, which is the highest published prime rate in the money tables of The Wall Street Journal. The rate is currently at 3.25% a year based on a 360-day year.

There were no loans outstanding under the LOC during 2021 and 2020.

Interest expense on the mortgage loan, including amortization of financing costs, during 2021 and 2020 totaled $255,049 and $265,717, respectively, which are included in general and administrative expenses in the accompanying statements of activities. Accrued interest at December 31, 2021 and 2020 amounted to $17,795 and $18,515, respectively, which is included in accounts payable and accrued expenses in the accompanying statements of financial position.

9. Employee Benefit Plans

Pension Plans

The Archdiocese sponsors a defined benefit pension plan (Pension Plan) covering substantially all full-time lay employees and clergy. Retirement benefits are based on years of service and the employees' compensation during those years of service. Pension Plan assets are held by third-party investment managers and are invested in various marketable debt, equity, and money market accounts. An independent actuary retained by the Archdiocese recommends minimum funding standards. Participants may elect to make contributions in an amount equal to 3.5%; 5.0%; or, effective January 1, 2018, 6.5% of earnings in accordance with the rules established by the Archdiocese Benefits Committee.

Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America

Notes to Financial Statements

The Pension Plan is a church plan and is, therefore, exempt from the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended. Based on the audited financial statements of the Pension Plan as of December 31, 2020, the Pension Plan's net assets available for benefits approximated $72,268,000 and the actuarial present value of its accumulated plan benefits approximated $126,878,000. Due to the nature of the Pension Plan, covering the clergy and lay employees of the Archdiocese, parishes, and the institutions of the Archdiocese, it is not practicable to determine the extent to which the assets of the Pension Plan cover the actuarially computed value of accumulated plan benefits vested benefits for the Archdiocese, on a standalone basis. Because the Pension Plan is accounted for as a multi-employer plan, it is only subject to certain minimum reporting requirements. For further information, refer to the audited financial statements of the Pension Plan for the year ended December 31, 2020, the latest date for which audited financial information is available.

Pension expense allocated to the Archdiocese for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020 amounted to approximately $627,940 and $652,500, respectively, and is allocated among programs and general and administrative expenses in the accompanying statements of activities. During 2021 and 2020, the Archdiocese contributed to the Pension Plan an additional amount of $1,000,000 each year, which is allocated among programs and general and administrative expenses in the accompanying statements of activities. There were no amounts due to the Pension Plan as of December 31, 2021 and 2020.

The Archdiocese also sponsors a noncontributory 403(b) defined contribution plan for all employees. For the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, there were no employer contributions to the 403(b) defined contribution plan.

Other Retirement Benefits

The Archdiocese also provides supplemental retirement benefits to certain hierarchs outside of the plan described above. A liability is calculated only for the hierarchs who have made known that they will avail themselves of retirement benefits. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Archdiocese has recorded liabilities of $4,531,134 and $2,377,563, respectively, which are presented as other postretirement benefits obligations in the accompanying statements of financial position. Of these amounts, approximately $2,503,000 and $368,000 represent the provisions for 2021 and 2020, respectively, which are included in general and administrative expense in the accompanying statements of activities and schedules of functional expenses in Note 3.

12. Endowment

The Archdiocese's endowment funds consist of a board-designated fund and donor-restricted funds.

Board-Designated Fund (the Cathedral Fund)

The Cathedral Fund was designated to be used, upon approval, for the benefit of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocesan Cathedral of the Holy Trinity and Cathedral-related projects. The following table summarizes the activity in the Cathedral Fund:

	2021	2020
Balance , beginning of year	$ 435,388	$ 1,026,790

Balance , end of year	$ 434,550	$ 435,388

Donor-Restricted Endowment Funds

The Archdiocese's donor-restricted (gifted) endowment consists of five individuals' funds established for a variety of purposes, principally in support of the Archdiocese's mission. It excludes beneficial interests in split-interest trusts held by others, which are required to be held by third-party trustees. Net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America

On September 17, 2010, New York State passed the New York State Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (NYPMIFA), its version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA). All not-for-profit organizations formed in New York must apply this law. The Archdiocese classifies donor-restricted endowment funds as net assets with donor restrictions, unless otherwise stipulated by the donor: (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) income accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift.

The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund not classified as held in perpetuity is classified as net assets with purpose and or time restriction, until such amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Archdiocese in a manner consistent with the uses, benefits, purposes, and duration for which the endowment is established and the standard of prudence prescribed by NYPMIFA.

In accordance with NYPMIFA, the Archdiocese considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds: the purpose, duration, and preservation of the endowment fund; expected total return of investments; general economic conditions; the possible effects of inflation and deflation; other resources of the Archdiocese; and the investment policy of the Archdiocese.

The Archdiocese has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that support the objective of providing a sustainable and increasing level of endowment income distribution to support the Archdiocese's activities while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. The Archdiocese's primary investment objective is to maximize total return within reasonable and prudent levels of risk while maintaining sufficient liquidity to meet disbursement needs and ensure preservation of capital.

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Archdiocese relies on a total return strategy, the objective of which is to achieve a return consisting of a combination of current income and capital appreciation, without regard to an emphasis on either, recognizing that changes in market conditions and interest rates will result in varying strategies in an attempt to optimize results. The endowment portfolio is diversified among various net asset classes and strategies to help reduce risk.
