THREE HIERARCHS STUDENT AWARDS CEREMONY (JANUARY 30, 2010)

In conjunction with the Feast Day of the Three Hierarchs, January 30th, and in celebration of Greek Letters, His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios of America will officiate at the Divine Liturgy at the Holy Trinity Cathedral in New York. Students, teachers, and administrators of the area parochial day schools are invited to attend and receive Holy Communion.

Following the Divine Liturgy, the Archbishop will bestow the Three Hierarchs Award of Excellence to the students who excelled – achieved a perfect score of 100 – in The 2009 Comprehensive Examination in Modern Greek during a luncheon (12:30 p.m.) to be held at the Conference Center of the Holy Trinity Cathedral, New York.

Addressing the honorees will be Ms. Mamie Stathatos-Fulgieri, Esq., president of the Greek-American Lawyers Association. The Byzantine Choir from Thessaloniki "Schola Cantorum" will sing church hymns.

Recognized by the New York State educational authorities, The Comprehensive Examination in Modern Greek is being developed and administered annually by the Direct Archdiocesan District Office of Education since 1973. Information on the Examination may be found at the Office's web page www.education.goarch.org
