LIVING OUR ORTHODOX FAITH: ORIGINAL SERIES FOR PRESCHOOL TO GRADE 4

Complete

Each grade level has a student text and a teacher guide. The last unit in each book is comprised of several feast day lessons, which are to be taught at the appropriate time during the year. Music and lyrics are included as noted, either in the teacher guide or in a separate song book. A single CD contains all of the songs for all grade levels.

Holistic & comprehensive

During their time with the “Living Our Orthodox Faith” curriculum, children encounter the saints, scriptures, sacraments, doctrines and traditions of Orthodox Christianity.

Each year is organized around an age-relevant theme, rather than a school-like subject, such as History, Music or Art. Topics at the center of the life of the Church—such as sacraments and major feasts—are presented multiple times, from different perspectives and in age-appropriate levels of detail.

Engaging

Every lesson is divided into three parts:

PART 1 is a story or activity pulled from everyday LIFE designed to help students think and talk about their lives at home, church or school. These experiences are then related to the theme of the lesson.

PART 2 teaches our Orthodox FAITH and beliefs relating to the lesson, using a Bible story, the life of a saint or a descriptive narrative. Here, the Church is “telling its story.”

PART 3 of each lesson is application, connecting the theme to the LIFE of the child.

Living Our Orthodox Faith CD

A single CD contains all of the hymns and songs for kindergarten to fourth grade.

K26 $19.95

Additional features:

LIVING OUR ORTHODOX FAITH: NEW SERIES FOR GRADE 5

New format, maximum flexibility

Building within the same curriculum structure and using the LIFE to FAITH to LIFE educational design, we have completely renovated Grade 5, the first in a new series of student zines and teacher guides.

Unlike the grade-level textbooks of the Original Series, the New Series is presented unit-by-unit in the form of zines (short “magazines”). Teacher guides for each unit are stored in the binder.

Directors and teachers can adjust their order quantities for various units according to class size fluctuations. Order only the units you need for your ministries... Maybe your Vacation Church School theme was “Old Testament Heroes”? Sounds a bit like Unit 1—you might choose to start the year off with Unit 2. Planning to spend a few Sunday mornings focused on a special project, such as an All Saints Fair or an arts festival? Perhaps you’ll choose to convert Unit 3 into a series of Wednesday evening sessions during Great Lent.

Hands-on...

Building from the Bible skills they learned from Growing with God (Grade 4), students are ready to go right to the source—with support! For many lessons, students will read one or more brief passages in their Bibles, directed by focus questions and summaries in the zine.

...but there’s still time for stories

Supplement, recap, or modify your Bible reading time with Re-Tales. Let Joseph’s brothers tell you their side of the story. Follow the Exodus in the journal entries of a young girl. Hear from each of the Evangelists, in their own style.

God Calls Us

Stephania Gianulis with Anton Vrame, Aimee Cox, Angeliki Constantine & Ted Theodorou

Concentrates on the stories of those heroes of the Faith who have responded to God's call. Through these examples of faith, loyalty, self-sacrifice, obedience, love, justice and social responsibility, students of this age learn to respond to God in terms of personal faith and the basics of Christian morality.

MIDDLE SCHOOL SERIES & ZINES FOR JUNIOR & SENIOR HIGH

About the zines & teacher guides

Each of the Department of Religious Education's zines (from "magazine") explores one topic of the Orthodox Christian Faith, with easy-to-read bites of information, vibrant images, and interactive elements, such as questions for reflection or Bible passages to look up.

Although the zines may be excellent sources of information when read independently, they are carefully designed classroom texts. The teacher guides are comprehensive units of 4–6 thematic lessons that lead students to a deeper understanding and active application of the short texts in the zine. The lessons follow the six-step "shared Christian praxis" format, which is described in each teacher guide.

Mixed-age groups

Do you combine several grades in a single class? For ideas about using the zines in a multi-year cycle with mixed-age classes, see <http://tinyurl.com/dre-curriculum>.

A la carte planning

The Department's materials for grades 6–12 come from several textbook series. Religious education directors can select several units to comprise each year's course of study. These textbooks can be used for a range of ages at the middle and high school levels, allowing teachers to adjust the discussion and activities to suit their particular situations.

Stewardship: Serving in God's World

All too often stewardship is equated with money, which is far too limited for a Christian perspective. The five lessons in this unit expand the vision of stewardship from the environment to our role of responsibility to each other, and focuses on the broad concepts of stewardship that will contribute to spiritual growth.

“We knew not whether we were in heaven or on earth . . . We know only that God dwells there among men.” As St. Vladimir’s emissaries found, heaven and earth meet in the Church through the Divine Liturgy. The zine begins with a brief history of worship in the Orthodox Church and then details each section of the service. Special features include a “visual dictionary” of liturgical items, a look at Church architecture, and an exploration of the Creed’s scriptural foundations.

Each lesson in the Teacher Guide helps students understand and engage with one aspect of the Divine Liturgy: worship, unity, prayer, Scripture, forgiveness and the “liturgy after the liturgy.” Age 10+.

The Church: We Are One in Christ

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. – 1 Peter 2:9

How exactly do we go about being God's people? This zine opens with a bit of Church history—from its Old Testament roots, to its ignition at Pentecost, to its development in North America—but it is in truth a practical manual for living as the Body of Christ. In unity and diversity, we are a community of faith, worship, service and witness. The zine concludes by describing how the Church works through the synergy of lay people, parish clergy and hierarchs. Age 13+.

Of Your Mystical Supper: The Eucharist

Through the themes of remembrance, thanksgiving, forgiveness and community, this zine explores the mystery of the Eucharist. The text introduces the fullness of the Church's teachings with Scripture and excerpts from the Fathers, such as St. Nicholas Cabasilas and St. Justin Martyr. Of Your Mystical Supper helps readers develop a more mature understanding through engagement with the tough questions—including “Why is the Eucharist closed?” The zine also describes liturgical practices and traditions, such as the making of prosphoro.

The Teacher Guide completes and supports the zine's text with activities and discussion guides. Lessons 1–4 explore universal topics, and lesson 5 covers the specifics of preparing for the Eucharist (as guided by the parish priest). Age 13+.

YOU ARE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD. (MATTHEW 5:14)

The aim of education in the Orthodox Church is to nurture, instruct and direct each member of the community of faith—the Church—so that each person grows “in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 3:18) and in turn offers light to the world (Matthew 5:14). That is to say, the goal of catechesis is for each person to become a living icon, reflecting the Christ-like way of knowing and being in the world.

This vision of education involves not only acquiring information but also living according to it. The core curriculum for learning the Orthodox Faith is the life of the Church as experienced in a dynamic, faith-filled parish. Our education in faith is a lifelong journey—no single textbook or series can teach everything. The Department offers these classroom materials for the first step of learning.
