Welcome to the Y<sup>2</sup>AM Ministry Plan!

August 3, 2017

Dear Young Adult Ministry Leader,

Being a ministry worker isn't easy. For too long, Church workers have spent countless hours finding or identifying resources and materials for their important work: drafting curricula, brainstorming sessions, creating calendars, etc.

That's all valuable effort. But wouldn't it be better if you could spend that time working with the young adults in your care, rather than cooped up in your office?

But to do that, you need support. You need a set of reliable, high-quality materials to help you lead Christ-centered ministry for your community.

That's why we created the Y<sup>2</sup>AM Ministry Plan.

We've created nine months of materials carefully designed for well-rounded, effective, and Kingdom-oriented ministry. Organized week-by-week and month-by-month, the Y<sup>2</sup>AM Ministry Plan gives you a comprehensive set of tools that will help you lead ministry designed, not simply for the head, but for the heart.

After all, Christians aren't simply informed: they are formed. They are transformed in the light of Christ into the people, the saints, God has called us to be.

That's why the Y<sup>2</sup>AM Ministry Plan offers a diverse set of experiences that don't simply pass on messages but rather facilitate encounters: both with other Christians and with our Lord Himself.

And it's all laid out for you, from the first week of September 2017 through the last week of May 2018.

If you ever have any questions, please feel free to reach out to us at y2am@goarch.org. Please, let us know what you think: we're committed to creating a new Y<sup>2</sup>AM Ministry Plan every year and constantly refining and improving the materials we offer you.

In Christ,

Steven Christoforou
Director, Y<sup>2</sup>AM

Special Acknowledgment

August 3, 2017

The Y<sup>2</sup>AM Ministry Plan takes the very best ministry insights and sets them forth in a simple, concrete, easy-to-use resource that can offer ministry workers help today. It reflects the great work of our Team, a fantastic group of people who have done (and continue to do) amazing things for the Church.

I'm blessed to work with them; their fierce dedication and humble love of the Lord encourage me daily.

Yet I'd be remiss if I don't offer special thanks to Cassandra Garibaldi, Y<sup>2</sup>AM's Resources & Training Coordinator, for her unique contribution.

Cassandra started working on this vital project almost a year ago. It's been an interesting and challenging process as she's both helped shape Y<sup>2</sup>AM's ministry vision and crystallized it into this concrete, user-friendly Y<sup>2</sup>AM Ministry Plan. Despite all the twists and turns and challenges along the way, Cassandra stayed focused on serving Christ and doing her best to help create ways to reveal Him in our lives.

Her leadership and effort (not to mention the amazing final product) are an incredible testament to Y<sup>2</sup>AM's ministry vision and the incredible impact that committed, Christ-centered young adults can have on the Church.

In Christ,

Steven Christoforou
Director, Y<sup>2</sup>AM

How to Use the Y<sup>2</sup>AM Ministry Plan

When working with small groups, it can be easy to let talkative people (leaders and students included) take over conversation. Small groups are also filled with people who process things in different ways: some may need more time and silence, some may need physical manipulation (writing, getting up, etc.).

Here are some tips that you can use to help your groups thrive in discussion:

Before each session:

1. It is important to read through each session before presenting the session to participants. Be confident in what you are presenting.
2. Note time allotments and have in mind what you would like to accomplish with your group during the session.
3. Before each session begins, pass out paper and pens to each participant. This can help participants process their thoughts and reactions.

During each session:

1. When asking questions, allow time for participants to reflect and write their answers down on the paper.
  2. Read one of the main questions or Bible verses from the lesson and write it on a board. Give a few minutes to respond and then allow time for each participant to respond.
  3. Try many different ways to engage conversation, and don't be afraid of silence; just because people aren't saying anything doesn't mean that they aren't thinking or responding.
  4. Remember to listen before reacting.
  5. If a question comes up and you are not sure of the answer, be honest and let participants know. Ask a priest and follow up with the participants. Be honest and true to yourself.
  6. If you have a good discussion going on a topic, allow the conversation to flow. Don't feel like you have to ask every question or go through every activity in its entirety.

Remember:

1. These sessions are a time for participants to share their own hearts, thoughts and feelings. They have much to say and offer, so try your best to be an active listener.
2. The goal is for participants to speak and learn, not to force a lesson on them for the sake of getting through the paper outline.
3. You are on a journey with your participants, and everyone is on a journey of learning together.

Thanks for letting the Y<sup>2</sup>AM Ministry Plan help you lead incredible, Christ-centered ministry.

And thank you for letting us join you on this journey.

LEARNING SESSION

SEPTEMBER 2017

How Love is a Fruit of the Spirit

GOAL:

Learn how to grow the fruit of love

OBJECTIVE:

To identify one way you can show Christian love
in your daily life, even when it is difficult

ESTIMATED DURATION:

45 minutes

LEARNING SESSION:
OCF RESOURCES 2017-18

SUPPLIES NEEDED:

1. projector and laptop
2. blank paper for each participant
3. pen for each participant

Article

Bishop Kallistos Ware
“I Love, Therefore I Am”

<https://incommunion.org/2009/06/23/i-love-therefore-i-am/>

OPENING PRAYER

In the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

O Holy Spirit, grace me with your fruit – love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

Amen.

(A Prayer by Archbishop Anastasios of Albania)

ACTIVITY 1: REFLECTION

10 minutes

Ask participants the following questions and facilitate a discussion:

In the article we are about to read, Bishop Kallistos explores our unique personhood.

- Who are you as a human person?
- How does love manifest in your life?

Remember:

It's always helpful to start with an activity to help participants relax and allow community to build. Early in the session, focus primarily on getting participants to open their hearts and connect with what's happening in the group. This is an opportunity to encourage participants to share their honest opinions and thoughts, as well as listen to those of others.

ACTIVITY 2: ARTICLE

10 minutes

Read the following article:

Bishop Kallistos Ware, “I Love, Therefore I Am” (<https://incommunion.org/2009/06/23/i-love-therefore-i-am/>)

Ask participants the following questions and facilitate a discussion:

- What did you read in the article?
- What is one lesson you can take away from the article?
- Everyone pick and share a quote.

ACTIVITY 3: TEACHING

10 minutes

Ask participants the following questions and facilitate a discussion:

- How is the title of this article a commentary on Rene Descartes' famous philosophical conclusion, "I think, therefore I am"?
- What point does Bishop Kallistos make by replacing "think" with "love"?
  - In the article, Bishop Kallistos Ware says, "Amor ergo sum, I am loved therefore I am. This is the key to personhood according to the Trinitarian image. Not isolated self-awareness, but relationship in mutual love."
- How do we see perfect love in the Trinity?
- What does the article tell us about the importance of being in a community with other people?

ACTIVITY 4: PRACTICAL APPLICATION

10 minutes

Choose one or two of the following questions and facilitate a discussion:

- How do you struggle with love in your life?
- How can we continue to grow in our personhood and become like God? What things prevent us from doing this, and how can we overcome them?
- How do we know someone loves us?
- Do you agree with Bishop Kallistos Ware's statement of "I am loved therefore I am"? How is your identity as a human person impacted by those who love you (and those who do not)?
- How can we improve how we love?
- Pick out a saint that is an example of love and share his or her story with the group.
  - "However hard I try, I find it impossible to construct anything greater than these three words, 'Love one another' —only to the end, and without exceptions: then all is justified and life is illumined, whereas otherwise it is an abomination and a burden." Mother Maria of Paris

LEARNING SESSION:
OCF RESOURCES 2017-18

ACTIVITY 5: SCRIPTURE

10 minutes

Read the following verses:

Old Testament: Genesis 2

New Testament: 1 John 4:18

Ask the following questions and facilitate a discussion:

- What is the significance of the story of Eve? What can we learn from that?
- How do you understand the New Testament verse? How is it applicable in our lives?

Lesson:

God created everything for goodness, but because we chose ourselves instead of Him, we are banished from the garden, from the presence of God. In the New Testament, God restores Eve, along with the rest of humanity, through the love of the Son and His death on a Cross. If we acquire God's love, we have nothing to fear, even death.

CONCLUSION: WRAP-UP &

COMMITMENT

5 minutes

Go around the room and ask each participant to answer the following questions. The session leader should go first.

- What is one way you will try to love people, even when it may be difficult?
- What is one way to manifest love in your daily life?

CLOSING PRAYER

In the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

“A new commandment I give to you; that you love each other, even as I have love you. By this all men will know, that you are my disciples; if you have love for each other.”

Amen.

(John 13:34)
