Welcome to the Y²AM Ministry Plan!

August 3, 2017

Dear Young Adult Ministry Leader,

Being a ministry worker isn't easy. For too long, Church workers have spent countless hours finding or identifying resources and materials for their important work: drafting curricula, brainstorming sessions, creating calendars, etc.

That's all valuable effort. But wouldn't it be better if you could spend that time working with the young adults in your care, rather than cooped up in your office?

But to do that, you need support. You need a set of reliable, high-quality materials to help you lead Christ-centered ministry for your community.

That's why we created the Y²AM Ministry Plan.

We've created nine months of materials carefully designed for well-rounded, effective, and Kingdom-oriented ministry. Organized week-by-week and month-by-month, the Y²AM Ministry Plan gives you a comprehensive set of tools that will help you lead ministry designed, not simply for the head, but for the heart.

After all, Christians aren't simply informed: they are formed. They are transformed in the light of Christ into the people, the saints, God has called us to be.

That's why the Y²AM Ministry Plan offers a diverse set of experiences that don't simply pass on messages but rather facilitate encounters: both with other Christians and with our Lord Himself.

And it's all laid out for you, from the first week of September 2017 through the last week of May 2018.

If you ever have any questions, please feel free to reach out to us at y2am@goarch.org. Please, let us know what you think: we're committed to creating a new Y²AM Ministry Plan every year and constantly refining and improving the materials we offer you.

In Christ,

Steven Christoforou

The Y²AM Ministry Plan takes the very best ministry insights and sets them forth in a simple, concrete, easy-to-use resource that can offer ministry workers help today. It reflects the great work of our Team, a fantastic group of people who have done (and continue to do) amazing things for the Church.

I'm blessed to work with them; their fierce dedication and humble love of the Lord encourage me daily.

Yet I'd be remiss if I don't offer special thanks to Cassandra Garibaldi, Y²AM's Resources & Training Coordinator, for her unique contribution.

Cassandra started working on this vital project almost a year ago. It's been an interesting and challenging process as she's both helped shape Y²AM's ministry vision and crystallized it into this concrete, user-friendly Y²AM Ministry Plan. Despite all the twists and turns and challenges along the way, Cassandra stayed focused on serving Christ and doing her best to help create ways to reveal Him in our lives.

Her leadership and effort (not to mention the amazing final product) are an incredible testament to Y²AM's ministry vision and the incredible impact that committed, Christ-centered young adults can have on the Church.

In Christ,

Steven Christoforou
Director, Y²AM

How to Use the Y²AM Ministry Plan

When working with small groups, it can be easy to let talkative people (leaders and students included) take over conversation. Small groups are also filled with people who process things in different ways: some may need more time and silence, some may need physical manipulation (writing, getting up, etc.).

Here are some tips that you can use to help your groups thrive in discussion:

Before each session:

1. It is important to read through each session before presenting the session to participants. Be confident in what you are presenting.
2. Note time allotments and have in mind what you would like to accomplish with your group during the session.
3. Before each session begins, pass out paper and pens to each participant. This can help participants process their thoughts and reactions.

During each session:

1. When asking questions, allow time for participants to reflect and write their answers down on the paper.
 2. Read one of the main questions or Bible verses from the lesson and write it on a board. Give a few minutes to respond and then allow time for each participant to respond.
 3. Try many different ways to engage conversation, and don't be afraid of silence; just because people aren't saying anything doesn't mean that they aren't thinking or responding.
 4. Remember to listen before reacting.
 5. If a question comes up and you are not sure of the answer, be honest and let participants know. Ask a priest and follow up with the participants. Be honest and true to yourself.
 6. If you have a good discussion going on a topic, allow the conversation to flow. Don't feel like you have to ask every question or go through every activity in its entirety.

Remember:

1. These sessions are a time for participants to share their own hearts, thoughts and feelings. They have much to say and offer, so try your best to be an active listener.
2. The goal is for participants to speak and learn, not to force a lesson on them for the sake of getting through the paper outline.
3. You are on a journey with your participants, and everyone is on a journey of learning together.

Thanks for letting the Y²AM Ministry Plan help you lead incredible, Christ-centered ministry.

And thank you for letting us join you on this journey.

“Fruit of the Spirit” : Faithfulness

Model session for the month of May

LEARNING SESSION

MAY 2018

How Faithfulness is a Fruit of the Spirit

GOAL:

Learn how to grow the fruit of faithfulness

OBJECTIVE:

To identify one way you can show faithfulness in your daily life, even when it is difficult

ESTIMATED DURATION:

45 minutes

LEARNING SESSION:
OCF RESOURCES 2017-18

SUPPLIES NEEDED:

1. projector and laptop
2. blank paper for each participant
3. pen for each participant

Articles

“Our Faithfulness to the Almighty God”

OPENING PRAYER

In the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

O Holy Spirit, grace me with your fruit – love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

Amen.

(A Prayer by Archbishop Anastasios of Albania)

ACTIVITY 1: REFLECTION

10 minutes

Ask participants the following questions and facilitate a discussion:

- How can we be both faithful and unfaithful to God?
- Is it a sin to doubt God?

Remember:

It's always helpful to start with an activity to help participants relax and allow community to build. Early in the session, focus primarily on getting participants to open their hearts and connect with what's happening in the group. This is an opportunity to encourage participants to share their honest opinions and thoughts, as well as listen to those of others.

ACTIVITY 2: ARTICLES

10 minutes

Read the following articles:

“Our Faithfulness to the Almighty God”

saintandrewgoc.org/home/2014/9/29/our-faithfulness-to-the-almighty-god.html

“The Myrrh Bearing Women”

orthodoxword.wordpress.com/2010/04/17/the-myrrhbearing-women-and-the-christian-women-of-today/

Ask participants the following questions and facilitate a discussion:

- What did you read in the articles?
- What is one lesson you can take away from the articles?
- Everyone pick and share a quote.

ACTIVITY 3: TEACHING

10 minutes

Ask participants the following questions and facilitate a discussion:

- What does it mean to be faithful? Faithful to something? Faithful to someone?
- What does faithfulness to God look like?
- How can being faithful to something be a metaphor for being faithful to Christ?
- As college students, what hinders us in putting Christ and the Church first? How do we overcome these struggles and turn toward Christ?

ACTIVITY 4: PRACTICAL APPLICATION

10 minutes

Ask participants the following questions and facilitate a discussion:

Fr. George says, “Some people make faithfulness a hallmark of their human relationships, but the faithfulness that matters to an Orthodox Christian is the faithfulness we show toward God.”

- Why is faithfulness to God what matters most?
- Is faithfulness still important in human relationships?
How so?
- What ways are you already faithful to Christ?
- How can we grow in faithfulness?
- How does doubt help us to be faithful?

ACTIVITY 5: SCRIPTURE

10 minutes

Read the following verse:

“A little while longer and the world will see Me no more, but you will see Me. Because I live, you will live also. At that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you. He who has My commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and manifest Myself to him.” Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, “Lord, how is it that You will manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?” Jesus answered and said to him, “If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him. He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and the word which you hear is not Mine but the Father’s who sent Me.”

(John 14:19-24)

Ask participants the following questions and facilitate a discussion:

- How does the Lord manifest Himself to us, even though we have not seen Him?
- How can the lesson of the myrrh-bearing women apply to all Orthodox people?

CONCLUSION: WRAP-UP &

COMMITMENT

5 minutes

Go around the room and ask each participant to answer the following questions. The session leader should go first.

- What is one way you will try to be faithful, even when it may be difficult?
- What is one way to manifest faith in your daily life?

CLOSING PRAYER

In the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

"Christ my God, help us to "be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer."

Amen.

(Romans 12:12)
