GREEK ORTHODOX ARCHDIOCESE OF AMERICA

2023 PALEOLOGOS GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP Instructions and Application Procedures

Attached is a Checklist and Application for the 2023 Paleologos Graduate Scholarship. Please read these instructions very carefully and provide the committee with all of the documents requested. Only those students who are intending to enroll full-time in professional graduate studies leading to graduate, non-theological degrees (or those already pursuing such graduate studies) should be applying for this scholarship. One or more scholarships of $5,000 will be awarded, plus some partial awards.

As designated by the scholarship donor, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Candidate must be an Orthodox Christian from a church that belongs to the Assembly of Orthodox Bishops of North and Central America. Member jurisdictions include: Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, American Carpatho-Russian Orthodox Diocese in the USA, Orthodox Church in America (OCA), Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America, Romanian Orthodox Archdiocese of America & Canada, Albanian Orthodox Diocese, Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the United States, Serbian Orthodox Church, Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church, and the Moscow Patriarchate in the USA. The applicant needs to be an active participant in church activities.
- Candidate must be a college graduate and in the academic year 2023-2024, either commencing their graduate studies or continuing with their graduate program studies on a full-time basis, at an accredited university in a non-theological field of study leading to a graduate degree.
- Candidates must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents of the United States. Proof of permanent residency is required i.e. copy of Birth Certificate; Naturalization Certificate; Permanent Residency Documents.
- Students receiving a full scholarship from any other source or a partial scholarship exceeding fifty percent (50%) of their tuition are not eligible for the Paleologos Graduate Scholarship program.

Each candidate must complete the application form (please print clearly and fill in all items requested on all three pages) and submit it to the Scholarship Committee together with all the other documents required, as listed below and as detailed on the Checklist. Make sure you also submit the Checklist as your coversheet. Completed application packets must be postmarked no later than the deadline of May 19, 2023 in order to be considered by the Scholarship Committee.

The following items must be included with your completed application:

- Complete academic records, including undergraduate & graduate transcripts, past & present.
- A Budget and/or Statement of Need, including a Calculation of Expenses (detailed by type: tuition, books, fees, room, board, transportation, travel, etc.) and outlining Sources of Financial Funding and Support (listing all financial aid: loans, scholarships, grants, assistance from parents and/or others, etc.). This budget must be accompanied by a financial statement from the Bursar's Office, stating the student's outstanding tuition, as well as the debt-schedule, stating the total amount of student loan indebtedness (accrued liability at time of application). Additionally, this budget should include the applicant's last three years of gross annual income, along with the number of hours worked per week (paid, unpaid, intern, service, volunteer, or other). Include a copy of your most current Federal Income Tax return. If your spouse and/or parent(s) are assisting you with education or living expenses, this must be disclosed with specifics, and a copy of their most current Federal tax return must be included with your application.

- A copy or transcript of your Baptismal or Chrismation Certificate.
- Candidates must prepare and include a detailed Resume or Curriculum Vitae.
- Candidates must prepare and submit a detailed Scholarship Proposal. Describe how your graduate studies will allow you to employ your talents and how being awarded this scholarship will help you use these talents to serve the Church and/or the community at large.
- Candidates may include a short Personal Statement, with an explanation of any special/extenuating circumstance(s).
- Candidates must include five (5) Letters of Recommendation. Please choose individuals that best represent diverse aspects of your accomplishments and provide us with a true picture of your character and background. Note: the first two listed – one addressing your academic background and one addressing your religious activities – must come from one of the individuals listed.
 - a) Academic - from a professor or advisor or program director.
 - b) Religious - from an Orthodox clergyman describing your church activities.
 - c) Personal - from someone who knows you well (not family or co-workers).
 - d) Supervisor - from a manager or employer (for paid, unpaid, volunteer, intern, service, or other type of work).
 - e) Professional peer - a colleague or co-worker.
 - f) Another recommendation from someone of your own choosing.

Please send your completed packets with all of the documentation materials listed above, including the completely filled-in Application Form and the Checklist as your coversheet, to:

Paleologos Graduate Scholarship Committee
Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America
8 East 79th Street
New York, NY 10075

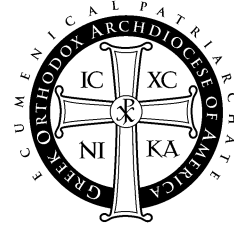

Recommendation letters can be sent directly to the committee from the individuals writing them or you can collect them and submit them with the rest of your documents. In either case, the applicant is responsible for ensuring that these letters, as well as all pieces of your application, are received by the committee.

The candidate should be available for a telephone interview at the Committee's discretion.

Scholarship application packets must be postmarked by the May 19, 2023 deadline.

Any questions should be directed to the Scholarship Office at scholarships@goarch.org.
